Dear Sir,

In furtherance to CIL letter no. CIL/M&S/Single Window e-auction/55 dated 20.02.2024 containing certain minor operative modification in e-auction mechanism and subsequent notification no. CIL/M&S/E-auction/92 dated 26.03.2024 circulating updated CIL e-auction scheme 2022, it may be noted that the following modification has now been approved by competent authority. The comparative of the approved modification vis a vis existing provision of CIL e-auction scheme 2022 is mentioned below:

Clause	Existing clause in CIL e-auction Scheme 2022	Modified clause
4.2.5	Second stage of bidding: The provisionally successful bidder of first stage shall be provided with a window of 6 hours to register their choice of mode(s) & source(s). In case the cluster contains more than one Rail and/or Road loading points, the bidder shall also be required to register their order of preference of all the loading points for Rail and Road mode	Second stage of bidding: The provisionally successful bidder of first stage shall be provided with a window of 4 hours to register their choice of mode(s) & source(s). In case the cluster contains more than one Rail and/or Road loading points, the bidder shall also be required to register their order of preference of all the loading points for Rail and Road mode.

Mjunction and MSTC Ltd. are requested to undertake necessary updation in the e-auction platform in this regard. A completion status report may please be intimated to CIL.

Yours faithfully,

Pyke
